WHAT IS MINDFULNESS?

Mindfulness is the ability to be fully present, aware of where we are and what we're doing, and not overly reactive or overwhelmed by what's going on around us...

7 KEY ATTITUDES OF MINDFULNESS

1) NON-JUDGING: Strive to witness your experience without judging.

2) PATIENCE: Try to accept that things happen in their own time and allow it to be.

3) BEGINNER'S MIND: Remain open and curious to new possibilities.

4) NON-STRIVING: Just be with yourself without trying to change anything.

5) TRUST: Know it is okay to make mistakes and develop a sense of trust for yourself.

6) ACCEPTANCE: See things as they really are.

7) LETTING GO: Let your experience be what it is.

The goal of mindfulness is to wake up the inner workings of our mental, emotional, and physical state while increasing the self-acceptance and balance in our lives.

Mindfulness sometimes involves breathing exercises, guided imagery, and other formal practices. We can also practice mindfulness informally through everyday tasks like eating, walking, or making our beds.

... HOWEVER, LAPSES OF MINDFULNESS HAPPEN TO THE BEST OF US.

HERE ARE 8 COMMON OBSTACLES TO MINDFULNESS:

- Being under stress
- Being exhausted
- Being hungry
- Having emotional reactivity
- Experiencing pain
- Being rushed
- Having addictive behaviors
- Being absorbed in your own narrative

BY UNDERSTANDING THESE OBSTACLES, YOU CAN:

- Be easier and less judgmental with yourself knowing that these pitfalls exist
- Notice and interrupt them so you may recover your mindfulness more quickly
